CORAM : B.R. Gavai, J.
DATED : September 6, 2006.

In pursuance to the order passed by this Court on September 4, 2006, the possession of the premises which have been taken by the petitioners on lease for the occupation of the respondent, has been handed over to the respondent.

The respondent has also handed over the possession of the Bishop's house to the Property Manager of the present petitioner. Perusal of the Panchnama as well as the report of the Police Inspector, Sadar Police Station, reveals that the house which has been given for occupation of the respondent, is well furnished having all the requisite furniture therein.

The respondent, through his counsel, has tendered unconditional apology for not complying the undertaking given to this Court on earlier occasion.

Though this Court could have taken serious view of the matter, taking into consideration that the matter pertains to religious dispute between the parties, I do not wish to proceed further. Apology tendered by the respondent is accepted and taken on record. The contempt proceedings are dropped.
